AUBURN SPLITS EVEN IN DOUBLE HEADER WITH GEORGIA

Timely Hitting Gives Orange and Blue the First Game.

Athens, Ga., March 29.—University of Georgia lost the first game of a double header to Auburn this afternoon by the score of 4-3, but defeated the Orange and Blue in the last game by the score of 11-0, and "copped" the series.

In the first game the timely hit of Davis in the second inning scored two runs; another run was also registered in this inning. Auburn waded into Morris and got a comfortable lead early in the game, and although Georgia scored two in the seventh and one in the eighth they were unable to locate Davis for the fourth. The feature of Auburn's work was the hitting of Davis. For Georgia, Covington and Hutchins landed safely three times out of five times at the bat, and McWhorter lifted one for a homer, and another for three sacks.

Second Game.

Driver went to the mound for Auburn and Corley did the twirling for Georgia. Driver was compelled to retire at the beginning of the second inning and Locke went to the box. Corley seemed to have Auburn at his mercy; only once in the game did Auburn seem to have a chance to score; Harris lifted one to deep center which should have gone for four sacks had he not fallen at the plate.

For Georgia, Henderson and Harrison each received homers, and Brown hit for three sacks.

The game was witnessed by several hundred Georgia fans and the interest in the games was very deep throughout.

MISS DUNCAN ENTERTAINS FOR MISS MADGE RODGERS

On Saturday evening, March 30, the lovely new home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan was the scene of one of the most delightful occasions of the Easter festivities. The affair was complimentary to Miss Madge Rodgers from Agnes Scott College. The hostess, Miss Frances Duncan, was assisted in entertaining by her mother and father in their usual gracious manner.

Hostess and guest of honor wore handsome costumes of pink charmeuse draped with chiffon.

The entire lower floor of this spacious home was thrown open, and after the guests assembled the interesting game of bridge was played at six tables. The game proved the "bridge of smiles instead of sighs" on this happy occasion. One prize was won by Miss Lannie Steadham, while the other was awarded to Mr. Homer Wright. Both were presented to the guest of honor in a witty and appropriate way by Mr. Ed Clements.

A delicious ice course brought to a close this delightful affair.

Those present were: Miss Madge Rodgers, Frances Duncan, Annie Terrell, Hassie Terrell, Helen Glenn, Mary Crenshaw, Mary McPherson, Phoebe Cary, Annie Frazier, Libbie Moore, Olive Steadham, Lannie Steadham; Messrs. Thomas Duncan, John Howard, Rev. C. W. Watson, Joe Perry, Ed Clements, Davidson, Frank Wilmore, Herbert Martin, Homer Wright, Perry, Scott Noble, Will Shivers, Frank Moore, R. A. McGinty, Kirk Newell, Jack Noble.

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. J. J. Wilmore entertained at a domino party in honor of Mrs. Jeff Falkner, of Montgomery, and Mrs. Murrell, of St. Louis. The decorations were made up of wild flowers and other early spring flowers. Delicious refreshments were served. The following guests were present: Mesdames Joseph Hudnut, A. L. Dillard, A. H. Buchanan, G. N. Mitcham, J. R. Rutland, J. T. Anderson, B. B. Ross, C. C. Thach, A. L. Wills, C. A. Cary, B. H. Crenshaw, B. L. Shi, B. S. Patrick, J. J. Wilmore, Jeff Falkner of Montgomery, Murrell of St. Louis, and Mrs. Smith; Misses Louie Dillard, Minnie Whitaker, Olive Steadham, Mary Casey, Mollie Holifield.

AUBURN SCRUBS TAKE TWO FROM TECH HIGH SCHOOL

Dorough Twirls a No Hit, No Run Game.

Saturday, March 29, while the varsity was in Athens battling with Georgia, the Scrubs pulled off a double header with Tech High School on the campus. Although Tech High is but a Prep to Ga. Tech, and the Scrubs are the seconds in Auburn, the two teams put up some baseball that possessed the fighting vim that an Auburn-Ga. Tech game would have. T. H. S. had a good bunch of material and played a good game for any High School, but they lacked team work and needed a little more ginger in the stick work. The Scrubs at times were poor in fielding and the handling of the willow was off, yet they pulled out on the top and bagged both games—7 to 0, and 8 to 5.

First Game.

Dorough took the hill for the Scrubs, while Parks did likewise for T. H. S. For the first four innings things seemed an even toss for the honors. But in the fourth, Parks weakened and the Scrubs got busy. Parks walked two men, then hit Pollard. Arnold scored on fielder's choice. Dorough slammed out a two bagger and shoved Anderson and Pollard across the pan. Roberts got safe on error and in the mix up, two more crossed the plate. Wind got first on error, as did White, and Roberts brings in another tally. Parks then settles and with two down, strikes the next man out.

After this unlucky inning Tech gets down to form and finishes out the game with little trouble from the Scrubs. Dorough allowed only two Tech men to reach first base, one walked and the other got there by being hit with the horse hide. The Scrubs in this game played errorless, but Tech registered seven. Some of these were accountable for runs.

Second Game.

The second game of the evening was not so interesting as the first yet it afforded a good show of some lively incidents of the baseball game. The two twirlers seemed to lack the goods of the slab artists in the first contest. This, together with a bunch of errors on both sides allowed a big score.

The second and third innings were the Scrubs' entirely. In the second Arnold gains first on error, steals second, but is caught hopping at the keystone bag. Anderson gets a two sacker to right field. Sparkman gets a hit and Anderson scores. Perry gains first on fielder's choice and steals second. Savage strikes out. Roberts hits to left and Perry and Sparkman cross the pan. Weston settles and strikes out Rabb. In the third inning Watkins and Benson go to first on errors with pop ups. Watkins steals third and Arnold gains first on fielder's choice. Hancock throws wild to third and Watkins scores. Weston pegs over Parke's head and Benson scores. Arnold comes in on Anderson's sacrifice. The next man pops up to third.

In the eighth Tech High has her round. After getting Parke and Bedell out, Savage walks Laird who steals second. Weston walks and steals second. Myers goes to first on Savage's peg home where Laird scores. Bedell is out at second. Arnold throws wild to Perry and Weston and Myers scores. Savage settles and strikes out Thomas.

LATEST BULLETIN ON CROPS FOR HOGS

The Animal Industry Department of Auburn has recently gotten out a bulletin on fattening hogs in Alabama. This pamphlet contains some very interesting data on the benefit of the various pasture crops for the use of fattening hogs, as well as the season of the year when the use of these crops will be most advantageous.

Owing to the size of the booklet and the necessary expense attached to mailing them out from the station, they will only be sent to persons making special requests for them.

You college boy, with the loud suit on! If you don't quit hopping the merry-go-round the cop is going to lock you up.

DR. W. D. WEATHERFOR MAKES VISIT TO AUBURN

Auburn had the privilege of having a visit from Dr. W. D. Weatherford, International Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association for the South, March 26-30. Dr. Weatherford is a native of Texas, a graduate of the University of that State, and has taken his Ph. D. degree at Vanderbilt University. For the past twelve years he has been International Secretary for the South.

His experience, gained in serving in this capacity, has acquainted him thoroughly with every phase of college and university life. Under his supervision the student associations have made marked progress in every phase of association activity, and there has been a large increase in material equipment.

The object of Dr. Weatherford's visit to Auburn was to give a series of addresses on moral and religious questions affecting student life.

His first address was given on Wednesday morning at the chapel hour. The subject was: "Traditionalist versus the Non-Conformist." In this address, Dr. Weatherford pointed out that one of the greatest needs in college life today is for men with the pioneer spirit in the moral realm, who are not content with conditions as they are because they have always been so; men with the same spirit in moral life that Edison has in the scientific world, and with the spirit that impelled Christopher Columbus to cross the Atlantic.

The address Wednesday night was on "The Power of A Clean Life." The argument in this address was: that a man cannot really believe in himself, that other men cannot believe in him, and that he cannot hope to do any great thing in life unless he has a clean record behind him. Dr. Weatherford gave as an example of the power a man with a clean record has, Mr. Joseph Folk, of Missouri, and how he was able to purify the political life of the state.

The third address was given at the fifth hour Thursday, the subject being "Positive Living." This address was a call not only to keep out of the darkness of sin, but to choose definitely to live in the sunlight of righteousness, to keep out of the "shady zone," the "border land," to avoid the things that are questionable and to choose the life that is positive and good.

The fourth address, given Thursday night, was on "The Freedom of Manhood." This address dealt with sin; how it deceives men, enslaves men, and wrecks men's lives, and of the Christian life—the life of freedom.

On Friday morning a special meeting of fraternity men was held, and an address dealing with the problems peculiar to fraternity life given. This address was well attended, and was appreciated by the fraternity men.

Friday night, Dr. Weatherford spoke on the subject: "A Man a Bulwark in Moral Conflict." Using as an illustration the courage of the prophet Isaiah, when the city of Jerusalem was besieged, he said that what is needed in our college life are men with moral courage, backbone and grit to stand for honesty, purity and truth in the face of fierce opposition, and thus to become leaders around which others may rally, bulwarks in moral conflict.

AUBURN, ALA., APRIL 5, 1913

What is the matter with Auburn's track team this year? If we expect to have any team worthy of the name it is high time that the men get organized and start practice. It is a fact that the other Southern colleges have had their squads organized for at least two weeks and have been getting in some good practice. At Tech, for instance, the track coach arrived over two weeks ago and has had his squad working hard ever since. They have a large number of men out and will bring an A-No. 1 team to Auburn on the First of May. Last May Day they beat our team. This year they will best us worse than ever unless some good material turns out and that in a hurry.

A man can't put on a track suit and make a creditable showing in a meet simply because he is a good man. He must be trained and in good condition if he expects to do anything. And a little over three weeks is a mighty short time in which to get in good condition.

So it is necessary that all men who have ever had any experience in track work or who have any capacity along that line get busy and get in condition.

Another thing that is of importance is our quarter mile track. It is in miserable condition, in fact it has ceased to be a track in any other respect than that it has a definite length. Let the men interested in track work get together and organize and see the Athletic Committee of the faculty and have this track put in shape immediately. It is a shame to so neglect this important branch of college athletics.

At our great "Home Coming Commencement" this June we expect to have from 1500 to 2000 of our alumni back in old Auburn for three or possibly four days. In order to accommodate this large crowd it will be necessary for a good many boys to give up their rooms and sleep in tents. The Alumni Association has procured an ample number of U. S. Army tents and cots for this occasion, and it only remains for the boys to do their part and make use of them.

We have heard in a roundabout way that there are a few fellows here who say that they don't propose to give up their room and sleep in a tent for any Alumni. Well it is a sad fact that there are some such people in every community and always will be. But we think that the number of this species in Auburn is very limited. In fact we feel sure that 90 per cent. of the fellows will willingly sleep in a tent for two or three nights in order to allow some returning Alumnus to use his room. The tents can be pitched convenient to the boys' rooms and they will only have to occupy them at night, so it will be more in the nature of a lark than of a hardship.

But even if it were a hardship who hasn't college spirit enough to undergo a little hardship in order to make our great "Home Coming Commencement" a success? It is to be the biggest thing that has ever happened to any college in the South and every man in Auburn can help it along by allowing some Alumni to use his room. We don't believe that there will be very many students who will hold back when the time comes. All of us hope to be Alumni some day, and the most of us hope to return to Old Auburn at some future time for a "Home Coming Commencement." And when we do come back we shall expect the students to entertain us, so let us apply the Golden Rule and be ready for the returning Alumni in June.

It always gives us pleasure to hear that an Auburn man is making good, and this pleasure is quickened when we hear good reports about a man who was a friend of ours while in Auburn, or who was prominent in College activities. Consequently it gave us a thrill of pleasure the other day when we learned from reliable source that Claude M. Ressler is now one of the very foremost veterinarians in Mobile. Our old football star seems to have taken the town by storm and already has a private hospital and the largest practice in the city. This news makes us want to slap him on the back and exclaim: "Go on Ressler" as we have often done on the football field. Ressler's success is but more evidence of the fact that Auburn has the best Veterinary Department in the South.

ALA. PIG CLUB WORK PROGRESSING

Auburn, Ala., March 31.—It is expected that at least eight hundred boys will be enrolled in the Boys' Pig Club this spring. The work is already being started in the following counties: Pike, Tallapoosa, Walker, Tuscaloosa, Marshall, Bullock, Colvert, Shelby, Chilton and Cullman.

Mr. Charles S. Jones who has charge of the work left on Friday for Alexander City and Birmingham where he is expected to arrange for the prizes that will be given at the various county fairs this fall. The prizes will be awarded on the best pure bred pig of any age, and of any breed, the best pig ready for butchering, best group of pigs, greatest daily gains, and the best essay on "The Value of the Forage Crops for Profitable Hog Raising in Alabama" and the best individual hog judge.

The Ladies' Music Club of Auburn are giving a concert at the High School on Saturday night for the benefit of the High School. The program will be made up of numbers by College band, Glee club, quartet and solos, together with a number of duets. As a feature of the program, several solos will be rendered by Miss Samford, a soprano singer of Opelika, and Mrs. Grady, a contralto of Nottulga.

THE FLYING GO-ROUND.

Auburn has been in a great tumult since last week, because of the great enterprise of amusement that has come into the fairest village of the plain. The great and modern invention, known as the Merry-Go-Round, is in our midst, and marvelous is the effect thereof. No more is the demand for palate refreshments heard at the popular drinking resorts. The nickels find their way to the coffers of the vast amusement company. No more is "Crow" possessed with an audience, for all hath journeyed to a place far better—to the wondrous non-alcoholic drunk creator. There in wonder and amazement do they stand, witnessing the continuous show. Everybody and his brother is attracted by the sights and the sweet music there hath charms that none can resist. The float-me-on-the-ocean sensation of the noble steeds, mounted on the platform, is a feeling new and attractive that some find impossible to resist.

To some of our brother cadets, this creation of man's genius hath charms that they cannot resist. "Senator" Wilson says it is more wonderful to ride on this mechanism than to dine in the White House. He has grown so attached to the place that the "chief" has been appointed to look after his welfare and render him service. "Greasey" Moore claims the honor of holding the "rapid jump" and "grab on the wing" records in mounting the platform while in motion. Many disputed his rights, but after repeated demonstrations on his part he was duly awarded the pup.

Captain Zeigler is an ardent admirer of the new form of amusement, and takes pleasure in entertaining his friends. He had a party of his brother students down to share his enjoyment, among whom were Brittan and Lovelace of the General Course.

This event is one that will long be remembered in Auburn, and it has brought into our lives a new stage of amusement. The coming of this modern invention will go down as history in this lovely village, and we can readily picture Mr. Wilson and Mr. Moore telling their posterity of the most wonderful event in their lives, which happened in Auburn, while students at this institution.

Personal Paragraphs

Mr. H. G. Carter spent the week-end in Atlanta visiting homefolks.

Mr. T. R. Mathews, of Sylacauga, spent the week-end in Auburn as a guest of the E. N's.

Mr. W. E. Hudmon, of Opelika, spent Sunday afternoon in the city.

Miss Helen Glenn spent several days here at her home this week.

Miss Madge Rodgers, of Atlanta, is visiting Miss Fanny Duncan this week. A party was given in honor of Miss Rodgers on Friday evening.

"What it takes to cure spring fever Hugh has got it. Price 10c. The best drink ever."

The city of Auburn is expecting to do some great improvements soon, since Rob. Noble has begun surveying trains and donating his board money to the city treasury.

The "Ice Cream Coan" returned to Auburn this week. It will be with us for several months.

Mrs. O. D. Smith left on Wednesday for Montgomery, where she will spend several days.

Miss Juliette Due, of Atlanta, spent the week-end with her cousin, Mrs. A. S. McCombs.

Mrs. A. S. McCombs left on Wednesday for Montgomery, where she will spend several days.

The Rev. Charles Lamar, formerly of Auburn, spent the week-end with his cousins, Mrs. Clara Perry and Miss Allie Glenn.

Miss Minnie Whitaker, who has been spending several days with friends in Montgomery, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Jeff Falkner, of Montgomery, is spending several weeks in Auburn, the guest of Miss Minnie Whitaker.

Mrs. Murrell, of St. Louis, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Anderson.

Miss Anna Wilmore, who has been spending the week at her home, has returned to college at Montgomery.

Mrs. E. R. Miller and Miss Aline Gleason spent Monday in Montgomery.

Mr. S. I. Bechdel has gone to Mobile, Ala., where he will examine the co-operative herd records, an experiment which the extension department is carrying on there.

Dr. W. D. Weatherford, the students' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., for the South, who spent several days in Auburn during the past week delivering a course of lectures, has gone to Nashville, Tenn., where he will deliver a course of lectures.

Prof. Jesse M. Jones has just returned from a trip to Cusseta, Ala., where he visited the co-operative experiment work being done on feeding work mules for the Experiment Station by Montgomery Bros.

Prof. Jesse M. Jones will leave on Friday for Sumter county, where he will visit the experimental work being carried on by S. S. Jerden for the Experiment Station. The work that Prof. Jones will investigate is the experimental feeding of steers on grass for fattening. He will start experiments at that place on the cost of feeding, maintaining and breeding hogs.

Dr. Weatherford Makes Visit

the last of the series, especially for students. The title of this address was: "Christ Our Source of Power." This address dealt with the battle with temptation, which every man is fighting, why some men are losing, and the need that every man has for the power which comes from Jesus Christ to enable him to win out in the fight for character. At the close of this address, a number of men made definite decisions for the Christian life.

This series of addresses was of immense value to every Auburn man that heard them, and an inspiration to stand for higher ideals of honesty and purity in college life. Every address was interesting, convincing, forceful and full of apt illustrations from athletic and other phases of college life. We cannot but feel that the results of Dr. Weatherford's visit are both deep and lasting, and we hope that it will be our good fortune to have him with us again next year.

Besides these special meetings for students, Dr. Weatherford preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning and gave an illustrated lecture in Langdon hall Sunday night on "Social and Economic Conditions of the Far East." The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity; the hand-colored slides were beautiful, and the lecture interesting and instructive.
